Avoid greed in all its forms.

There I shall store all my grain and other goods and I shall say to myself, "Now as for you, you have so many good things stored up for many years, rest, eat, drink, be merry!" But God said to him, 'You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?' Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God."

Prayer for 18th Sunday

O God, the giver of every gift that endures, only by your grace can we rightly understand the wonder of life and why it is given. By the word of your Son challenge our foolishness, confront our greed, and shape our lives to the wisdom of the gospel. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

AMEN

Father of Goodness and Love, hear our prayers for the sick members of our community and for all who are in need. May the fullness of your Will be done in their lives. We ask this through Our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Catholic in ATL during the 1950s –1970s?

My name is Leah Mickens. I'm a Religious Studies Ph.D. student at Boston University My dissertation examines how the Civil Rights Movement & the Second Vatican Council affected African American Catholics in Atlanta.

As part of my research, I'll collect oral histories from parishioners of the Catholic Church in Atlanta during the 1950s through 1970s, a time period that covers the civil rights era, the convening of Vatican II, & the subsequent implementation of the Council at the parish level.

Participation in the project can occur in one of 3 ways:
(1) a 1-on-1 informal in-person interview (30 min - 1 hr)
(2) a group interview session (45 min -1 hr)
(3) a telephone interview (30 min - 1 hr)

If you are willing to assist me in my research efforts, please contact me at 404-274-7724 or lmickens@bu.edu Thank you for your interest. Leah Mickens, MS, MLIS
